Really Have to Earn It

There are two full weeks of the regular season left, and teams have to navigate five to six games over a 15-day period to see it out. It is a grueling stretch, especially coming off the back of a three-game week, followed by a week of rain.

One thing is for sure, whoever ends the regular season on top will have certainly earned it. With the league switching to a double round-robin, every team will have had to battle home and away with the others. Sixteen games is a lot, and the games have come fast and furious without any time to breathe or gather yourself after a big win or a poor result.

A deserving regular season champion will be crowned, and the hope is that after this grueling season, that the MCAL Champion, and subsequent Playoff Champion, as well as any others that earn NCS berths, will still have anything left in the tank to represent the MCAL well in the Section tournament.

Many teams are already battered and bruised, but we all have to push on and find a way to grind out results at the business end of the season. It is a battle of attrition, and one that will crown the first champion of the double round-robin era...
