SIZING UP THE RUN-IN

Five teams, two first round byes, one regular season title... With just four games remaining there are still five teams with a legitimate shot at claiming the regular season title, and an even better chance at claiming one of the two coveted first round byes in the MCAL tournament. Here is a look at the five teams in contention:

Redwood (v Branson, @ Novato, v Drake, v MC): Redwood currently sits one point clear of their competition, but with 3 games against the chasers, it won't be a cruise to the finish.

Tamalpais (v Drake, @ Branson, v Novato, v Terra Linda): The hottest team in the league sits only one point back, and with 3 of 4 at home, the title could be heading back to Tam.

Drake (@ Tam, @ Terra Linda, @ Redwood, v Justin): The early pace setters will be happy to be out of Novato, but with three more on the road it is going to be tough.

MC (@ San Rafael, @ San Marin, v Justin, @ Redwood): MC is coming off their first loss, but will be back to full strength for the run in. MC at Redwood on final day could be massive.

Branson (@ Redwood, v Tam, v San Marin, v San Rafael): Branson's title hopes will be decided this week as they take on the top two. 3 of 4 at home give them a shout...

On the other end of the table Novato holds a one point lead over San Marin for the final playoff spot. Those two play each other on the final day which could be the decider. Terra Linda sits five points behind, but can close the gap Tuesday v San Marin.

* Magic Number represents the number of results points needed to be eligible for NCS - Win = 2, Tie = 1. So each win takes two off the total, a tie takes one off. Magic number does not include playoff games.

Numbers in parenthesis are NCS Magic Numbers that only league games can reduce.

There are three ways to become eligible - .500 record in league, .500 record overall, .500 rec in classification
