

Gottschalk MCAL Soccer Report

Back At It

The winter break is over, and a couple teams get right back at it with non-league games right out of the shoot. Tamalpais will host D1 powerhouse Carondolet, and Branson will host Marin Academy, which beat Tamalpais in their last match before the break. Both games will have NCS seeding implications for each of these teams later in the season...

Week 3 Games of the Week

1/6 - Branson v Novato

1/9 - San Rafael v Justin-Siena

1/6 - Redwood v Drake

1/9 - San Marin v Novato

"Queens of the City Cup"

Over the Break

Although there hasn't been an MCAL league game over the past three weeks, teams have been very busy with non-conference games, and training over the break to get prepared for the second half of the season. The league play break has allowed teams to finally settle in and get some proper training in to become more organized and better equipped to deal with different situations they may face in matches the rest of the regular season, and certainly in the playoffs.

San Marin grabbed their first win of the season, and first win for rookie head-coach Andy Ong. The Mustangs toppled Richmond by the score of 6-0, a win that will have re-energized the group and provided the motivation to continue to work hard and improve on their performances.

Drake continued their run of good form with a 3-0 victory over perennial NCS participant University. The win took Drake's record to 6-1-0 on the season for first year head-coach Conrad Gregory. The Pirates face Redwood, Branson, and Marin Academy in the next eight days, a stretch of games that will have a big impact on the post season...

Branson was also busy over the break, taking part in the Bakersfield Garces Soccer Festival. The Bulls took home first place in their division, beating Kern Valley, Vazquez, and McFarland of Disney fame, in the final. Branson take on Marin Academy, Novato, and Drake in a week that is certain to test the resolve of the group...

MCAL Coach Gathering

Coaches, this year's MCAL coach gathering will take place on Wednesday, January 13th, immediately following the completion of the matches. All coaches from all levels and all leagues are welcome. The gathering will take place at the Marin Brew Co.
