Sweet Caroline, Goal! Goal! Goal! Good times...

It is hard to imagine a first week going any better. Redwood's Caroline O'Donnell got her season off and running with a trio of game-winning goals in three-win week for the Giants.

Caroline's headline week started on the road at Ukiah. With the teams tied at the half, it seemed like a game where one goal was going to win it, and what a goal it was. Caroline initially made a run out wide to support Dakota Ledesma. But after Dakota turned her mark inside out and beat her around the edge, Caroline raced to get herself back in front of goal. Dakota's cross found Caroline, and her turn and hit was top class. It was not only how sublime the turn and finish was, but the intelligence, discipline, and determination, to get to goal from a wide position when Dakota beat the right back, that set up what was truly a fantastic goal. Final score, 1-0.

Two days later Caroline was at it again on the road at Burlingame. Caroline once again got herself into a great position inside the box, then timed her run perfectly to get across the front of her mark just before the ball arrived, then beat the GK to the far post with the deftest of touches. Caroline's goal would be the difference as Redwood won by the same 1-0 score line as in the opener.

Many people had not even taken their seats, nor had the VEO started to record, before Caroline's discipline and high work-rate to pressure the opponents GK paid instant dividends, seeing Caroline block a clearance into the goal to send Redwood on their way to their third shutout victory of the week.

It is another three-game week for Redwood, and nobody should be surprised to see Caroline's name amongst the scorers in the form she has begun the season in.

Mission Accomplished!

Elisa Shott and her Cal Lutheran squad captured the NCAA D3 National Title over the weekend, defeating Tufts in a penalty shootout, and then topping Wash U in the final by a score of 1-0.

Elisa had a fantastic weekend, hitting the crossbar in the semi, before serving the corner that led to the Cal Lutheran goal, then playing 70 minutes where she worked tirelessly to get Cal Lutheran over the finish line in the final.

The MCAL, and of course the Archie Williams faithful, are incredibly proud!

This Week's Action

The MCAL compiled an overall record of 7-1-4 in week one. Best of luck to all the squads this week!
