Play-In Madness

After sixteen games, including two head-to-head matchups, there was nothing to separate Archie Williams of Marin Catholic, so a play-in game for the final playoff spot was needed. On a picturesque day in San Anselmo, the two sides squared off to decide who would be the fourth and final team in this year's MCAL Playoffs.

It was the Falcons that asserted themselves from the opening whistle, pinning the Wildcats deep in their own half and moving the ball around the park looking for an opening to create a scoring chance. MC was up for it, and time and again they made the plays they needed to make to keep Archie Williams from getting any clean looks on goal. The Falcons had a number of first half corners, and the service forced the Cats to be brave and come up with a couple of key clearances. MC chances were few and far between, but late in the half a long diagonal from the right side was played in behind the Archie backline and latched onto by Zoe Shepherd. Charlotte Block was step for step with Zoe and made a perfectly timed tackle to save a goal. Archie went back to the attack and the game looked destined for 0-0 at halftime. In first-half stoppage time a hopeful ball forward found its way in behind Archie's defense, and Lea Gorman raced onto the end of it. Charlotte chased again, but Lea did incredibly well to hold off the challenge as she closed in on goal and then shot low to the far post. Gabby Thawley got a touch to it, but not enough to keep it out. Instead of 0-0 it was the Cats taking a 1-0 lead into the break.

The Falcons continue to attack in the second half, creating a number of crosses and good chances from set pieces. Ellie Casey tested Finn Seymore with a freekick that was curling inside the near post, but Finn was up to the task. Ellie also swung in some dangerous corners, but each time the Wildcat defense made the key plays that they needed to make. As time would down Archie pushed and pushed for the equalizer, but it wasn't to come on this day, and MC claimed the fourth and final playoff spot.

Both teams left it all on the field, and both look primed to make some noise in the upcoming NCS playoffs.
