Off and Running, Well Jogging Maybe...

The first two matchdays are now behind us, and it is safe to say that the long layoff has had an impact on all the teams around the league. The quality of play was certainly not where anybody would want it to be, with errant touches, poorly struck balls, and a lack of organization in all lines.

Having lost so much time to prepare teams due to the smoke, coaches have to make the best of it and really prioritize what needs to be worked on in the little time we have between all the games. It will take time to get teams where the coaches want them to be, and until then, desire and grit will play a big part in results early in the season. The ability of a team to find a way to get a result when things aren't as sharp as we would like them to be will have a big say in who will lift the 2018/19 MCAL Regular Season Championship...

Proper High School Soccer

This past Wednesday the new season kicked off for eight of the nine teams in the league. And for the first time, other than a game or two hosted off-site at Indian Valley College, a night game was played. San Rafael hosted Drake, and though it ended 0-0 on the night, the energy inside the stadium was fantastic. The two teams got after it on the field, parents littered the bleachers with coffee and blankets in hand, and coaches around the league showed up to get a first glimpse of how High School soccer should be played - under the lights.

Chants were fired back and forth between supporters of both schools, there was action at both ends, and the rain held off to make this first MCAL regular season game under the lights a special one. Regardless of the result, you can bet that any school that plays midweek at San Rafael will remember that match as one of their favorite of the season.
