Pop the...Wine?!?!

There may be a week of the MCAL regular season left to play, but a two win week for Justin-Siena coupled with a Branson win on Friday means that this year's playoff teams have all booked their tickets with a week to spare.

Where the teams will finish in the top six still remains to be seen with a plethora of key games in the final week that will help determine the post-season seeding in the MCAL tournament.

Marin Catholic and Redwood have secured the coveted first round byes, but MC still needs one point to secure the regular season title. The two teams play each other on Tuesday. Tam, Branson, Drake, and Justin are all separated by three points, meaning the two quarter-final home games are still very much up in the air.

Regardless of where they finish in the top six, Justin-Siena has plenty of reason to celebrate, securing their first MCAL playoff berth in school history. There is no doubting that when the final whistle blew ending the San Rafael v Branson game, the wine bottles, yes wine bottles, began popping in Napa, and a toast was being made to a historic season...
