Mid-Point and Milestones

If it feels like we just started, it is because we have. But believe it or not, most teams will be hitting the midpoint of their league season this Wednesday. Wednesday is a massive day in the league with tons of playoff implications all around. The current top four all go head to head, all knowing that those two first round byes could be on the line. At the other end of the table, three teams look to secure their first points and take a big step towards finishing in the top six.

Around the league some milestones have been hit recently, with coaches notching some career victory marks, and players working their way up the all-time leader boards. We take a look around the league at what has transpired:

Marin Catholic - Isaiah Schwerin notched his 25th win in charge of Marin Catholic in their win against Cardinal Newman over the weekend. Coming off a NorCal winning campaign, Isaiah has the Cats at the top of the table.

San Rafael - Nichole Caiocca secured her 50th win in charge of San Rafael in a 2-0 win vs Concord, and then her 51st in a 1-0 v San Domenico. Nichole has the Bulldogs one win away from a 10-win season already.

Redwood - Ivan Bandov recently recorded his 200th win between Mountain View and Redwood. With three wins last week he has now upped that mark to 203, and has the Giants challenging for hardware once again.

Branson - Ally Hsieh, with her two goals and two assists last week, moved up some of the all-time leaderboards. Ally now has sole possession of 13th with her 31 career goals, is 17th all-time with 73 points, and is now 8th all-time with her nine game-winning goals.

Congratulations to all on reaching these milestones, and best of luck to all the rest of the way.
