THE CHASE IS ON

We are beyond the mid-way point, and every squad has just six games left to make a push to claim one of the many coveted prizes. The regular season title, two first round byes, and six total playoff spots are all waiting to be claimed.

The first two prizes look to be a three horse race, with Branson and Tam currently holding the two first round bye slots, with Redwood two points adrift of the latter. Match-day 10 sees the two squaring off head to head, this time at Redwood. Tam won the first contest 4-0 the first day of the season, but Redwood have yet to drop points at home this year, and will look to even the score in a game with huge playoff implications. To win the league, both Tam and Redwood will have to hope for some help along the way, needing Branson to drop points at least once on the run in.

Perhaps more compelling is the race for the other three playoff spots this year. The gap between fourth and seventh is a mere four points, and could shrink further by the middle of the week. Terra Linda's excellent season continued last week, picking up a pair of wins and catapulting up into fifth place. Drake's consecutive playoff appearance streak could be in jeopardy, currently sitting in seventh, with four of their last six games against the current top four. San Rafael are currently five points adrift of the final playoff spot, but with only one game left against teams in the top four, a late season push could see the Bulldogs sneak in the playoffs backdoor.

The last few years have seen all kinds of twists and turns in the final three weeks of the season, and with six games still to go, nothing has been settled. The teams that can keep their nerve down the stretch will give themselves the best chance of claiming one of the prizes...
