Epic Comeback has Giants Dreaming of a Three-Peat

When the Redwood and Marin Catholic JV teams took the field on Saturday, it was first vs second in a match that undoubtedly would have a big say in who will finish on top when all is said and done.

Redwood won the first meeting at Marin Catholic 1-0, and the second installment was setting up to be another hard-fought, nail-biting affair. The first thirty minutes were very cagey as both teams tried to get ahold of the game. In the 33rd minute, for the first time in 753 MCAL minutes, the Redwood goal was breached. Isabel Adam picked up a loose ball and found Alivia Etcheber for the opening goal. Two minutes later Alivia found the back of the net again, this time on an assist from Georgia Compagno. The Wildcats would take that 2-0 lead into the break.

The second half became even more hotly contested as Redwood battled to get back into the match, and MC fought to keep their lead and claim a massive three points on the road. Seven minutes into the second half Redwood struck. Evelyn Spiegel served in a corner that was only half-cleared in the direction of Sarah Farese who fired the ball past the MC goalkeeper. The goal upped the intensity of the match and fouls were being called on both teams as neither team wanted to give an inch to the other. In the 56th minute Redwood were on level terms. Mia Ginsburg dribbled into the box and drew a couple MC defenders towards her before slipping the ball into the path of Spiegel who finished first time.

Redwood continued to push for the winner, and in the 72nd minute it came. Spiegel was involved once again, this time delivering a corner beyond the far post that found Callie Horn. Callie took it first time and smashed the ball off the inside of the post from 12 yards out.

Redwood saw out the last eight minutes for the 3-2 victory and took a Giant step toward claiming a third-straight Girls JV title. There are still a lot of games left, including another top of the table clash with Tamalpais, but the Giants will undoubtedly have gained a lot of confidence from the comeback win.
