Edge of Your Seat Drama on the Final Day

The regular season title has been decided on the last day many times over the last decade, but what was unique this time is that the two teams vying for the title would face off head to head on the final day. Branson carried a two point lead into the final day, but were facing a Redwood side that had won at Branson in each of their last two visits. It would take all three points for Redwood to claim the regular season title, meaning Branson needed only to tie to hold onto top spot and the #1 seed in the MCAL playoffs.

When you look at the league table you could hardly be surprised when the game went to the break at 0-0. The best chance of the first half saw Maya Greenholz force a massive diving save from Patricia DePalma to keep things level. The second half started much like the first, with Redwood applying more of the pressure. Ten minutes into the second half the Giants opened the scoring when Sarah Farese got on the end of a corner which was initially saved then bounced off another Bull and in. The Bulls immediately switched shape and threw numbers forward, even sending Patricia on corners as they searched for an equalizer. 90 seconds from time Branson won a corner. The ball was swung into the box but punched away by Paige Barta. Carly Lowe was first to the loose ball and sent a left footed shot up over the crowd of players and into the back of the net. It seemed like the goal that would bring Branson their second successive regular season title, but Redwood had other ideas. In the fourth and final minute of stoppage time Redwood won a throw-in deep in the Bulls end. Maya took the throw, it was deflected towards the endline and Caroline O'Donnell was the quickest to react. She did ever so well to get her hips around it and smash it goalward. The ball was deflected back towards the penalty spot where it was redirected by Charlotte Lacy into the patch of Ava Walkeryee. Ava turned quickly and hit a first time ball that hit the inside of the far post and nestled into the back of the net. Thirty seconds later the final whistle blew and Redwood had completed one of the most dramatic ever endings to an MCAL regular season.

Redwood will look to complete the double next week, hosting Archie Williams in the MCAL semis on Thursday, with the winner advancing to play the winner of Thursday's other semi-final between Branson and Tamalpais. The final is set for 4:00 on Saturday at San Rafael High.

Record Falls: With her shutout on Tuesday night, Patricia DePalma set a new single-season record for shutouts with 14, beating out former Bulls Athena Manthouli and Sydney Wishner who had shared the previous record of 13. Patricia also finishes her career tied for second on the all-time MCAL regular season shutout list with 32.
