

Gottschalk MCAL Soccer Report

It's That Time Again. ALREADY?!?!?!

It is official. It wasn't just a bad dream. Winter soccer is here, for REAL! And right on cue are the wind and rain. There is nothing that can be done now other than to move forward and embrace what will surely be an interesting first winter season. With change comes questions, so the Gottschalk report has set out to answer some of those questions pertaining to some of the major differences now that we are in the winter.

Schedule: Our Tuesday and Thursday schedule is no more. This year matches will be played on either Tuesday or Wednesday, and a game on Saturday. The standard time for all midweek games will be 3:15, with varsity playing at one site and the JV at the opposite. San Rafael will host home midweek games at 6:00 pm, and Justin-Siena will also have later kickoffs thanks to access to lights.

Coaching: The change to winter has had a dramatic impact on the coaching staff on the girls side. Only two schools, Tamalpais and Redwood, will bring back their head coach from a season ago. That means that eight schools will have new head coaches leading the girls program in our inaugural winter season.

NCS: In the past, all the schools in the MCAL were in the same classification when it came time to apply to the NCS. In the winter season, all the schools in the NCS have been split into three different divisions based on school size. Division 3 consists of all schools up to 1199, while Division 2 includes all schools 1200 to 1899. With these new classifications, Novato, Redwood, San Rafael, and Tamalpais will all be aiming for a spot in the Division 2 NCS bracket. The other six MCAL schools will be fighting for places in the Division 3 NCS bracket. Each bracket will include up to 16 eligible teams, same as it was during the spring.

New Rules: There are a couple important rules that apply in the winter, but no other season. In the past our girls have been allowed to compete both on their High School team and an outside soccer team at the same time because CIF had no jurisdiction over us as we were playing in spring. Winter is the official season of sport for High School soccer, and as such we must now abide by the rules CIF has in place regarding playing on any outside team, or any outside soccer related activity for that matter. Per the CIF/NCS rules, once a player plays in a High School scrimmage or game, she may no longer participate with any outside team. Should a player do so they would become ineligible for the rest of their High School season. If a player breaks that rule their High School would have to forfeit any match that the player plays in after playing for their club team.

This rule does not prevent a player from practicing with their High School team while club is still going on. Girls that have games during November for club would be able to tryout and practice with their High School team, but would just not be able to play in any scrimmages or games until their club season goes on break.

Other activities such as the Olympic Development Program trainings and college ID camps also have restrictions. It will be very important for your players to connect with their coaches prior to attending anything soccer related outside of school in order to comply with CIF's rules.

Grab your heavy jackets, rain boots and umbrellas, and we will see you out on the pitch!
