

Gottschalk MCAL Soccer Report

It Starts Anew

A new decade in the MCAL is underway, and squads across the league have started their preparations to be the first to claim titles in the 2020s. Familiar faces are positioned to challenge for regular and post-season titles, while other schools continue their upward trend and look poised to be genuine threats to claim a playoff spot for themselves.

While the game across the globe continues to evolve, High School rules continue to evolve as well, albeit not always at the same pace and in the same direction. What you won't see is teams allowed to play goal kicks to a teammate inside the penalty area, nor will you see the game whistled dead when the ball strikes the referee. What has changed is that time will be added for any substitution by the team in the lead in the final five minutes, and the rule for how to restart play in the event of an injury has reverted to a drop ball, rather than a freekick to the team that was deemed to be in possession at the time of the whistle. This last one is an important change, as the D1 NorCal title was decided when a freekick was awarded to Monte Vista in overtime, and despite Monte Vista seemingly to be giving the ball back to Davis, instead had a player latch on to the long ball and score the sudden death overtime winner...

We have some new faces joining the head coaching ranks around the league. Sarah Sargent is taking over the reigns at San Marin after serving as the varsity assistant last season. Lucas Marroquin steps in as the new Redwood Giants head coach after leading the boys JV to an MCAL title last season. And at Drake, Jeff Mahaney, long time successful JV coach, will take over to lead the Varsity Pirates this season.

Best of luck to all the squads in non-conference play in what promises to be another entertaining year in the MCAL.

Etching Your Name in the Record Books

Records are made to be broken, and few could fall this year. Below in the report you can find the single season records, but there are also some players looking to climb up the all-time MCAL leaders list. Here are a look at some players that are moving up the charts:

All-Time Shutouts Record is 32. Ellie Flad is currently on 22.75.

All-Time Goals Record is 50. Grace Bouton is currently 12th all time with 26, and could move into the top five with a 10-goal season.

All-Time Assists Record is 34. Abby Dillon and Eliana Prosnitz both sit in 12th with 19, needing just five to get into the top five.

All-Time Points Record is 131. Grace Bouton currently sits 12th with 70, needing 22 more to break into the top five.
