They Just Don't Get It...

a sophomore at St. Teresa High School in San Jose, because she played in two matches at the U17 National Team Camp. Apparently the games were not approved because US Soccer submitted it's application with CIF to have the games played only a few days before the event, not the 30 days required by CIF. Only California and Michigan have such rules. With last second roster changes it makes giving the 30 days notice very difficult at times...

St. Teresa was forced to forfeit four games, and Tegan must now sit out another four, ruling her out of the NCS tournament. And why? Because she had the honor of playing for her country against Germany. At what point will all of this nonsense stop? It is supposed to be about the kids and playing a game. Instead it is about bureaucracy and rules to prevent kids from excelling in their sport and playing high school.

It extends beyond this event, as kids that play in the winter and tryout for ODP are not allowed to fully participate at tryouts in December, nor are they allowed to train prior to the ODP Regional Championships, because the tryout and training sessions go beyond the allowable number of players limit. They can play 5v5, but nothing more. How absurd and arbitrary is that?

It is time that CIF opened their eyes to the sport of soccer, which is different than the others when it comes to the National Team. And don't they realize that the player and the school are already being punished when the player is away on National Team duty???

MCAL Coach Gathering - Mark Your Calendars
