Redwood, fresh off a treble winning season, has once again been pegged as the pre-season favorite in the MCAL. Redwood returns the heart of their championship team, including seven players that were recognized with all-league honors last season.

Tamalpais also received a first place vote and could challenge for the title. The Red-Tailed Hawks lost their gk, but a few new additions have made their attack even more potent.

Marin Catholic has been picked third, and with an opening day matchup with Tamalpais, we will find out early on who may be the best contender for the title.

Drake will be under new leadership in 2011, but despite the loss of their leader in the back, Drake has a lot of talent and could be a dark horse this season.

San Marin will be young, but returns 4/5ths of the back line that posted 8 shutouts in 2010.

Branson must fill the void of the departed POY Kelly McFarlane, but will be competitive.

Novato lost their 1st team striker and their gk, but this spirited group might surprise.

Terra Linda looks to rebound from a tough season. Don't sleep on this team...

Justin-Siena, under new leadership, looks to re-establish itself as a playoff contender.

San Rafael will say goodbye to long-time coach Andres Ojeida after the 2011 campaign.
